CSE Scholarships 2019
Students apply directly to CSE

Deadline for all of CSE scholarships is May 3, 2019
Visit the CSE scholarships webpage for more information about the following awards https://cse.wwu.edu/college-science-and-technology/cse-scholarships

Oscar Edwin Olson Scholarships – (4 @ $6,000)

- For an undergraduate student majoring in a CSE program
- Based on overall academic merit and must be children of single, divorced or widowed parents (adopted or biological)
  - Eligible students are those who at any time in their first 18 years either:
    - Lived with one unmarried parent
    - Had divorced parents
    - Had one or more deceased parents
- Must demonstrate financial need through a FAFSA or WAFSA document
- Students awarded the Olson Scholarship the previous academic year can receive it for a second year, but no more than 2 years

Marion Van Nostrand Scholarship – (3 @ ~ $10,0001)

- For single, custodial parents with a dependent child majoring in a STEM field2
- Must demonstrate financial need through a FAFSA or WAFSA document
- Must be in good academic standing and making progress towards their degree with a minimum GPA of 2.0
- Students awarded the Van Nostrand Scholarship can receive the award for the reminder of their academic career if they continue to meet the requirements

1Covers in-state tuition and fee plus $1,000
2Biology, Chemistry, Computer Science, Engineering (ABET accredited programs only), Environmental Science, Geology, Mathematics, Physics/Astronomy, and CSE Science Education
CSE Scholarships
Student Application Form

Qualifications: Nominated students must:

- Be a matriculated full-time WWU students (12+ credits) with at least one academic year (3 full quarters) remaining until anticipated graduation at the time of a scholarship award.
- Be a major or Master's student in a CSE department.
- Meet any further qualifications imposed by individual scholarships.

Student Name: [Type text]

W Number: [Type text]

Scholarship: Select Scholarship

Faculty Mentor/Department Chair: [Type text]

To complete a nomination, please attach:

- All transcripts, WWU and transfer courses. (Unofficial transcripts acceptable)
- A one-page statement outlining achievements and qualifications
- A letter of recommendation from a faculty mentor

Email this form and documents listed above to Laquita Garbarino at daggl@wwu.edu by May 3rd 2019.

Only nominations received by the deadline date will be considered. Selections are made by the Dean and Associate Dean of CSE.